

The UWTC meeting was held at the scheduled time, 7:30 PM, Thursday, 8 May.

The meeting opened with congratulating best student paper award recipients of the San Francisco meeting.

We thanked outgoing student council representative Jennie Wylie and welcomed incoming representative James Esplin.

Then we thanked outgoing representative on Medals and Awards, John Perkins, and welcomed incoming representative Charles Holland.

We thanked the TPOM representative for the Providence meeting, Gopu Potty helped by Kathy Ann Clark, followed by a discussion on the topic of changing the TPOM the remote format. Nick Chotiros volunteered to serve as the new representative.

The meeting then reviewed the Indianapolis meeting: Special sessions and TPOM representatives. All in good order.

An announcement was made by Sean Fulop on ASA Patents.

The meeting then turned its attention to the Pittsburgh meeting, TPOM representative selected (Nick Chotiros), and special sessions proposed (2 in total).

Information on other meetings of interest to UWTC members were announced.

Dave Bradley discussed ASA Books giveaway program.

Jerry Ginsberg discussed publishing books in digital form.

David Dowling announced the launch of Resume Help Desk for Indianapolis.

Nick Chotiros and Marcia Isakson discussed the possibility of “English translations of Chinese journals in Underwater Sound” with ASA and ONR Global support. The TC is in favor of “ASA look into this possibility”.

The TC members found that ASA School a success and considered new Meeting Program distribution scheme favorably.

Finally, a lively discussion was conducted on the issue of “AO and UW,” considering the pros and cons of keeping the two TC’s separate committees.

The meeting is then adjourned.
